

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

October 27, 2020

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Michael Riley, Managing Partner

Alpha Capital CRE

mriley@alphacapitalcre.com; (773) 294-1100

ALPHA CAPITAL CRE ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT

CHICAGO, IL (October 27, 2020)—Chicago-based commercial real estate investment banking firm Alpha Capital CRE recently welcomed Sean Truesdale to their team as a Vice President. Truesdale specializes in commercial real estate debt and equity placement across all asset classes nationwide.

Truesdale has been involved in over $500 million of CRE capital markets transactions and was previously a senior associate with Pangea Mortgage Capital, a CRE bridge and special situations lender based in Chicago. He also spent three years as an analyst in the capital markets group of Pangea Properties, a private REIT based in Chicago. Truesdale started his career with Cortland Capital Market Services (now Alter Domus) in their investor relations group.

“This is an exciting time for Alpha Capital, and I’m grateful to be part of it,” said Truesdale of the investment banking firm. “Sean makes a valuable addition to our team,” said Alpha Capital CRE Managing Partner Michael Riley. “His experience, industry knowledge, versatility, and underwriting capabilities will be an important asset to the firm as we look ahead to 2021 and beyond.”

ABOUT ALPHA CAPITAL CRE

Founded by Anthony Longo and Michael Riley, Alpha Capital CRE is a commercial real estate investment banking firm providing capital markets solutions to institutional and entrepreneurial sponsors across all asset classes nationwide. Alpha takes a comprehensive approach to provide optimal financial structuring and equity advisory services tailored to each client. We deliver in-depth capital markets expertise and a vast network of capital sources, boasting specific expertise in both debt financing and equity placement.